

THE STEAMBOAT HORROR.

FURTHER DETAILS OF THE CALAMITOUS TROUBLE.

THE VICTIMS OF THE DISASTER.

New York, June 29.—Wm. R. Grace, 51 Wall street, reported lost together with his wife and child by the burning of the steamer Seawanhaw last evening, after a collision with the water half an hour.

Henry Arthur, a leather merchant, 84 Old Street, is also saved.

The body of J. H. H. was found at the foot of 115th street, was found on board of the Seawanhaw after shaking hands with his brother, who was saved.

The body at the morgue supposed to be that of Rev. J. W. Miller, D. D., former pastor of St. Luke's Church, Brooklyn, has not yet been identified.

Two more bodies were picked up off Ward's Island. One man was 40 years old, light complexion, sandy hair and whiskers, dressed in black coat, checked jumper and blue trousers. The other man was 35 years old, sandy mustache, dressed in dark pantaloons and checked jumper.

The bodies of Mrs. E. D. Bennett and husband, and Mrs. E. D. Bennett, 18 and 20 Liberty street, were identified at the morgue, and removed to their late residence, Brooklyn.

The bodies of Mrs. Barbara Ranscher and Miss Lizzie Slater, 30 West Fifth street, were also identified and removed.

The body of G. Booth, a lawyer, Liberty street, was a passenger and has not been heard from since the disaster.

Chas. E. Appleby, of 153 Broadway, reported lost. His wife, writes that both were uninjured.

Constantine Sherry, a child brought to the morgue this morning, was recognized and taken away by his father who lives at No. 247 Second avenue, aged 31, of No. 311 Broadway, was recognized by his father and the body taken away this morning.

Susan E. Colton, aged 15 years, wife of Geo. W. Colton agent of the Rest Star Steamship Line, is missing. Her husband went aboard the steamer this morning by a woman who said, with tears in her eyes, that Miss Reed was engaged to be married next month, and that she had no relatives in this world. The lady is held at the morgue.

The body of Barbara Roush, a German, aged 34 years, was lying on a marble slab in her arms and clinging to her breast, was the body of an infant child, the husband and father recognized the dead child until today, and they were returned to their late home, 426 West Fifty-third street, was recognized among the dead at the morgue.

There also has been identified Theodore Gantier, groom, Sheriff street, and Clarence Vandewater, four years old, son of John J. Vandewater.

At 2 o'clock the Morgue was crowded with people, many of whom were making inquiries. There are four bodies there which are unidentified.

Among the missing reported late this evening are Mrs. Mary Ann Flynn, Second avenue and One Hundred and Sixty-third street, H. H. Hubbard, of Great Neck, L. I.; Israel Bloomfield, Great Forty-ninth street, Mr. Hubbard was formerly Controller of the Currency under Secretary Chase, and has a brother living in Cincinnati. Mr. Hubbard went aboard the steamer with Miss Brumfield who was saved. Some terrible sights confronted our reporters at the scene of the wreck this morning.

On the seaboard side, nearly level with the top of the water, were the remains of two human beings. Who they were, probably never to be known, for the remains bore resemblance to nothing more closely than chunks of burned meat. Heads and limbs were scattered about, and very few small bones were seen. The bodies lay about eight feet apart on top of the horizontal boiler.

Directly beneath the main forward deck were the bones of a third victim. How they came to be there is a mystery. One, indeed, he or she fell through the burning deck and met a fate a thousand times more horrible than by drowning. Under the mass of ruins that spreads out from the bulk it is thought other bodies may be found.

The identified dead are Mary Beach, age three and a half years, daughter of Mrs. Mary A. Beach, widow of ex-Judge Beach, of Kings county; Aaron B. Bennett, age 2 years, son of the book binding manufacturer, No. 18 and 20 Liberty street, residing at No. 88 Vanderbilt avenue, Brooklyn; Eline Bennett, age 63, wife of Aaron B. Bennett; Mrs. Geo. W. Colton, 151 Pacific street, Brooklyn, her husband was killed by the Seawanhaw disaster; D. H. Debevoise, age forty-seven, 55 Pacific street Brooklyn, he was a member of the firm of Katothorn & Debevoise, and a well known broker; Jacob W. Diller, D. D., of the firm of St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal church, Second avenue, Brooklyn; Frank Flanagan, No. 417, West Twenty-sixth street, aged 45 years, coachman; Julius Frank, a well known dry goods merchant, Whitestone, L. I.; Mary Edith Gray, aged 7 months, daughter of W. H. Gray, 684 Eighth avenue; Theo. Grutcher, grocer, 72 Sheriff street, thirty-five years old; Chas. H. Brown (colored), boy waiter on board the steamer. The list of missing is large.

John Foster, L. I., June 29.—Among the lost from the Seawanhaw last evening was James Frank, of Whitestone, Long Island, aged forty-two years, of the firm of Frank A. Morris, dry goods dealers, and a leading citizen. He leaves a wife and seven small children.

Among those missing, who were on board the Seawanhaw, when she was burned, are Wm. Nichols, of Sea Cliff; Mrs. M. Meisner, of Glenwood, and Edgar Wagstaff, of Whitestone.

How Garfield Returned His Salary Grab.

Washington, June 26.—The following letter explains itself.

THEATRE DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY, June 29, 1880.

To Mr. J. B. Felt, Esq., East 4th Street, Iowa:

Sir:—In reply to your letter of the 17th inst., asking to be informed on what date Hon. James A. Garfield paid into the Treasury his back pay, and how the Treasury books show this transaction, I have the honor to inform you that it appears from the records of this office that the sum of $18,000 was deposited to the credit of the Treasury of the United States in the name of James A. Garfield, on account of "retroactive increase of salary," on the 23d of April, 1879, and that this amount was covered into the Treasury by the Miscellaneous Appropriation Warrant, No. 704, second quarter, 1879, and can not be withdrawn except by an act of Congress. Very respectfully,

Assistant Secretary.

Now let us have a certificate from the two West Virginia Senators, showing that because of their back pay,

President Hayes.

His Address to the Students of Yale College.

New Haven, June 29.—This evening the Graduating Class at Yale serenaded President Porter. President Hayes to-day became the guest of the College, and in stopping at President Porter's house. After the serenade President Hayes addressed the students as follows:

YOUNG GENTLEMEN:—I am happy to meet you on this interesting occasion. It is interesting to yourself and you are an object of interest to all who look upon you, and I can only say that I wish you all manner of prosperity.

President Hayes attended the graduating exercises at Sheffield Scientific school, also visited the camp fire at Admiral Foote, Post G. A. R., giving him a cordial reception. Fireworks were used and Col. Dexter R. Wright made the address of welcome, praising Hayes' administration. The President replied as follows:

COMRADES OF ADMIRAL FOOTE POSTER: This very hearty reception certainly deserves some recognition. Without the slightest preparation—without a thought that I might be placed in circumstances which seem to be quite courteous if I did not say something, I feel I ought to say a few words in acknowledgment of your cordial greeting. The sentiments expressed in the address of welcome just made are altogether above any merits of mine. I need not allude to the many differences of mind which have arisen during my time, but I believe that what we all fought for was the good of the country, and that the people of the South have just as much reason to rejoice over our victory as we have, and that no greater benefits have been gained for the North than for the South.

THE STATE CONVENTION.

Prospects of a Large Attendance—An Enthusiastic Meeting—Nothing Definite Concerning the Candidates.

GRAPTON, W. VA., June 29.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

The delegates from different sections of the State to the Republican Convention which meets here to-morrow, have been arriving in squads all day, and to-night a large number are in town. The Convention bids fair to be a large one, with representatives from nearly all the counties of the State.

An informal caucus was held this evening, but nothing of a definite nature transpired. A public meeting was also held, and several prominent gentlemen from different parts of the State made speeches. The meeting was large and enthusiastic.

Speculation is rife in regard to the action of the Convention, but nothing more definite can be told here than at Wheeling or any other point in the State.

C.

WASHINGTON, PA., June 29.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

An alarm of fire this evening from the jail created quite an excitement for a few minutes. The fire engine was on hand promptly, but the fire was extinguished before much damage was done—only burning the bed of one of the prisoners where the fire originated.

Rev. T. H. Robinson, of Harrisburg, addressed the literary societies of Washington and Jefferson College, this evening, in Town Hall. To-morrow the closing exercises of the college commencement will take place.
